BILL WICKS ELECTED MANAGER

Directors of Riverview Club of the State Hospital Held a Meeting—Prospects for 1915 Baseball Nine Look Bright—Hockenbrocht Elected Captain.

At a meeting of the directors of the Riverview club of the Norwich State hospital, Bill Wicks was elected manager of the hospital baseball team for the season of 1915. Wicks has had a good deal of experience as a player but has never had any experience as a manager. He was captain of the Hospital team during the season of 1910 and led the team through many a hard fought game.

Prospects for the lineup this year are bright. Chas. as a receiver, may have an equal around these parts, but none better, Harrigan, the old reliable pitcher is still at the hospital and will be a further help to the team. When the name of McGraw is mentioned in connection with the team, it is a foregone conclusion that the hospital is well taken care of at that position. At third base will be found Hockenbrocht who will captain the team throughout the season. He covered third base about half of last season and showed sterling qualities. He covered third for the All American Army team that toured the Philippines during 1912, having spent three years there serving for Uncle Sam. He is a clean and active player and very popular with all of the players and will prove a great deal of help to the team because of his knowledge of the finer points of the game.

Shortstop is not filled at present, but last year a star performer, Brogan of New London, covered that position. In the outfield there are Corbett, an extremely fast man on the paths, being the fastest man on the team at 10 yards and a sure fielder, Paul White, the Franklin street phenom when it comes to picking them out of the ozone and under the tutelage of Hockenbrocht will develop into a good batsman.

The pitchers, Hawkins, Davis and Russell can play the outfield if necessary so the outlook for a strong team is exceedingly bright.

The schedule has not been arranged but any of the teams in Eastern Connecticut that are desirous of playing a series of games or single games are requested to arrange for same at an early date and none but the strongest teams are desired. F. A. Schemm of the Falls, Elmerville of Williamstown, Jewett City, Sterling, any team of Hartford, in fact any team of fifty miles of Norwich can be sure of a warm reception at the hands of the hospital team.

Wicks has the good will and wishes of all of his friends in his new position.

BRITISH SOLDIERS IN A NORTHERN FRANCE TRENCH.

The above illustration shows a British regimental kitchen which was installed in a trench on the banks of the Aisne. Shortly after the above picture was taken a shell burst at this spot and killed about forty men who happened to be there. It will be noticed that the men above were quite unaware of their danger at the time and were busy with their various regimental kitchen utensils.

Representatives of West Point and Annapolis will meet in Annapolis, Md., to arrange final details concerning the next football game between the two schools. The game will be played at the Polo Grounds in New York, Nov. 27. The officers who will attend the conference are representatives of the Army Athletic Council, Colonel C. D. Williams, Major E. J. Timberlake, Captain D. L. Sullivan and Lieutenant Charles B. Meyer. The conference will be held in the office of Harry H. Henshaw, president of the New York National League football club.

Under the arrangement entered into with the navy committee last fall, the games to be played in 1915 and 1917 will be staged in New York.

Three Oarsmen Who Rowed Against Yale Last Season in the Varsity Combination.

Cambridge, Mass., Feb. 15.—Harvard's varsity eight was formed tentatively today within a few minutes after the college rowing activities officially began. One hundred students answered the call for candidates and were put to work on the rowing machines. A first eight and a second, were made up and the rest of the candidates were allotted to class crews.

The varsity combination was composed of three oarsmen who rowed against Yale last June, three members of the crew who won a trophy and two members of the Freshman eight of last year. Some, who were in the varsity last season, were placed in the second crew for the present. The varsity was made up of Bill Brown, who posed of three oarsmen who rowed against Yale last June, three members of the crew who won a trophy and two members of the Freshman eight of last year.

Stroke, Lund; 7, Cabot; 6, Parnon; 5, J. W. Middendorf; 4, Harwood; 3, James; 2, Morgan; 1, how, Captain. Mr. Krewer, who was away from the varsity last year, resumed his position today.

CORNELL STARS WILL COMPETE IN BIG MEET.
Intercollegiate Games Set for March 6 at Madison Square Garden.

All of the star athletes of the champion Cornell track team will be in the indoor games of the Intercollegiate Association of Amateur Athletes of America to be held in Madison Square Garden on March 6, according to the present plans of Coach Jack Skelley.

While it is not yet possible to make final plans for this meet, it is probable that Cornell will enter 30 athletes in the games.

Plans for Relays.
Among the men who will represent the Red and White at New York are the crack distance runners, Spelden, Hoffmire, Potter and Windmager; Alma Richards, the former Olympic champion high jumper; Milton, who scored in the pole vault in the intercollegiate last spring; Ingorsoll, who scored in the shot put in the same meet last spring; McCutcheon, who gained a point in the hammer throw at that meet, and a number of other men who have shown considerable ability in dual and other meets.

At the present time it seems probable that Cornell will enter at least four relay teams in each of the three field events, namely, shotput, high jump and pole vault.

It seems certain that the Ithacans will be represented in the relay event in which each man will run 100 yards, and in the event in which each man will run 200 yards. It is also probable that in the relay race in which each man will run 500 yards and that in which each man will run 1000 yards.

Cornell is probably stronger in the longer distances and, therefore, Coach Skelley will probably make a big play for these events.

Will Enter Hoffmire.
In the 2000 entry list he will undoubtedly enter Hoffmire, the intercollegiate two mile champion. Potter,
